

Legacy Endowment Campaign Advisory Council

In consideration of our friends, donors, and volunteers, LifeCare Alliance has established the Legacy Endowment Advisory Council, comprising a select group of financial planners, trust officers, legal counsel, and accounting professionals to serve as a resource for those who might be interested in including LifeCare Alliance in their estate plans. While we cannot recommend anyone, their participation is strictly voluntary, and there is no obligation or expectation on the part of LifeCare Alliance's staff, board, or board committee members to advocate for their services. Our goal is to present you with a corps of professionals who are familiar with our programs, and who might be of service to you.
